JOURNAL OF S-2 FOR FEBRUARY 1944

On 2 February the S-2 section moved with Regimental Headquarters from X-Ray Beach to Anzio and set up a headquarters there. 1st Lt A. D. Gavura was officially made S-2 officer on 7 February, replacing Captain Fisdale. T/5 Minkoff, section draftsman, was promoted to T/4.

The section continued to maintain liaison with higher headquarters throughout the month, publishing a daily S-2 summary as well as keeping up a situation map showing position of both Allied and German units. Shortly after moving to Anzio the S-2 section reproduced and distributed a world news summary furnished by the Signal Corps each day.

T/Sgt Whitten acted as liaison to the counterbattery officer, VI Corps, making reports on enemy shells which fell in or near the port.

The section made and distributed calanders for the Regiment, made posters and wire circuit diagrams showing detail for the Signal Corps, and reproduced training diagrams for the S-2 and S-3 sections.

The section photographer kept a pictorial record of events of military importance throughout the month.
