I am in contact with Henri from Belgium, and he is extremely knowledgeable on the subject.

This incomplete list includes a great deal of units too, and actually covers the area south. It mentions Norwind which was part of the Bulge (Ardennes/Alsace Campaign). This list gives many of the engineer units that were involved. This is the area that VI Corps was involved in. Notice that it mentions the 3rd, the 45th Inf Divs etc. It should also include the 36th and 540th Combat Engineers who were attached to these units. Do you see how complex this is getting?

You will notice that he asks for assistance in identifying other units, so I will send off a note today so the 36th and 540th are also included on the link above.

A good book dealing with Norwind is:

Seven Days in January by Zoepf

I am now the proud owner of an official BOB certificate which has my dad's name and unit on it. It hangs in my office at home.

I'm sure we will talk later in the day.

warm regards,
